

Conifers

Balsam Fir

Balsam Fir grows to 35-75 feet (spread 20-35 feet) and prefers wet to moist soil in full sun to partial shade conditions. Its growth rate is relatively fast.

Acquired from forestryimages.org

Tamarack

Tamarack grows to 40-65 feet (spread 20-40 feet) and prefers wet soil in full sun conditions. Its growth rate is slow to moderate. Needles turn brilliant gold and drop in fall, unique among conifers.

Acquired from forestryimages.org

White Spruce

White Spruce grows to 50-70 feet (spread 20-30 feet) and prefers broad soil in full sun to partial shade conditions. A super native windbreak; deer-resistant. Its growth rate is moderate.

Acquired from forestryimages.org

Common Juniper

Common Juniper grows to 5-15 feet (spread 8-12 feet) and prefers moist soil in full sun to partial shade conditions. Its growth rate is slow.

Acquired from forestryimages.org

Norway Spruce

Norway Spruce grows to 50-70 feet (spread 20-35 feet) and prefers wet to moist soil in full sun conditions. Its growth rate is fast.

Acquired from forestryimages.org

Eastern Hemlock

Eastern Hemlock grows to 60-100 feet (spread 25-35') and prefers moist soil in full sun to partial shade conditions. Growth rate is slow to moderate. A super wildlife cover!

Acquired from forestryimages.org

Blue Spruce

Blue Spruce grows to 40-60 feet (spread 20-35 feet) and prefers broad soil in full sun to partial shade conditions. Growth rate is slow.

Acquired from plants.usda.gov

Red Pine

Red Pine grows to 65-100 feet (spread 40-70 feet) and prefers moist to dry soil in full sun to partial shade conditions. Growth rate is moderately fast.

Acquired from forestryimages.org

White Cedar

White Cedar grows to 30-45 feet (spread 20-30 feet) and prefers wet to moist soil in full sun to partial shade conditions. Growth rate is slow. Super for wildlife!

Acquired from plants.usda.gov

Jack Pine

Jack Pine Grows to 30-60 feet (spread 10-25 feet) and prefers moist to dry soil in full sun conditions. Growth rate is moderately fast. Essential habitat for endangered Kirtland's warbler.

Acquired from plants.usda.gov

White Pine

White Pine grows to 75-100 feet (spread 50-75 feet) and prefers moist to dry soil in full sun to partial shade. Growth rate is moderately fast. Graceful, thin needles in groups of five. Our state tree!

Acquired from forestryimages.org